

Seattle's first Master of Art - Chinese Calligraphy and Painting with Shaolin Kung Fu

Speaker/Artist: International Peony Prince, Famous Master of Calligraphy and Painting Jiang Yiqiao, Shaolin Kung Fu Master Lei Zhou

Date & Time: July 16 – Aug 3, 2018. A total of three weeks classes. Choose from one-week camp or three consecutive weeks camp. Every weekday from 9:00am to 12:00pm (Chinese Calligraphy and Painting) and 1pm – 4pm (Shaolin Kung Fu)

Location: Seattle Shaolin Kungfu Academy

Hosted by: Seattle Shaolin Kungfu Academy, US-China Peony Art Fund Foundation, and American Peony Academy

Content: Understand the history of Chinese painting and calligraphy, learn the basic painting techniques of Peony, and learn the introduction to Chinese calligraphy. The three weeks camp include: basic concept & introductory to the arts, Peony painting and calligraphy writing sessions, and creative sessions.

Achievements: Student who completed each weekly camp will finish with a peony painting and calligraphy work. The finish art works will be critiqued and rewarded once a week. Student art works will be showcased and displayed accordingly.

Rewards: Participants will be given admission priority into the Professional Peony Class at the American Peony Academy. Students who participated for three consecutive weeks can learn Peony painting from mentor without charges after the camp completion.

Note: A small peony painting by Master Jiang Yiqiao is in the range of 1,500 to 5,000 US dollars in charity donations for all kinds of societies. Now, we could learn face-to-face with the masters and learn how to paint peony and write Chinese calligraphy properly.
